Graceworks was founded in 2006, out of a couple's desire to promote spiritual friendship in church and society, and see lives transformed through books that present truth for life.

Having themselves experienced the immense blessing of spiritual friendship and transformative literature, the Lord called Soo-Inn & Bernice to encourage others to do the same. Graceworks seeks to:

TRAIN

Equip people to live out relationally healthy lives as Christians in the church & in the world.

MENTOR

Train mentors & run mentoring groups to help followers of Jesus grow in Christlikeness.

PUBLISH

Bring to life books that promote spiritual friendship & connect the Word with issues of daily life.

Our publishing list consists of titles that fall into two broad categories::

1. Spiritual Friendship/Mentoring: Relationship building
2. Truth for Life: Applying biblical truths to the challenges of daily living.

We have a particular passion to nurture and publish local Singaporean and South East Asian authors as they can speak to the specific context, culture and issues of our Asian readers. Thus helping them live as genuine disciples of Christ in this complex and challenging world.

We pray that God will be able to use our ministry to bless yours.

SOO-INN TAN

While it is important to structure small-group meetings, it is more important to understand how all these practices relate to the fact that the risen Christ is in the midst of the meeting.

"Certainly much has been said and written about small groups over the years, but what Soo-Inn guides us into here is what has not been said and practiced enough in the life of our small-group ministries - that is, the risen Christ among us as we gather together."

Christian Instruction

ATTENTIVE TO GOD

TONY HORSFALL

"We all know how easy it is to lose concentration and let our attention wander. It happens so easily, and far too frequently, this problem of inattentiveness.

This also happens in the spiritual life. God speaks to us but we fail to recognise his voice, our minds are elsewhere, we are not attuned to his whisper. He wants to lead us and guide us, but we miss his gentle promptings. He is present all around us, yet we don't register his nearness...

The purpose of this book is to help you become more consistently aware of God; to train your ear to hear his voice, and your eye to see what he is doing; to grow and improve so you can serve God more effectively."

Widely read, the author draws us into his own pilgrimage in 'discovering your calling', gracing us with the thoughtful voices that have spoken to him through the years, giving clarity and confidence in making sense of his own vocation."

LEADERSHIP

A Primer

SOO-INN TAN

If leadership is more function than office, a number of liberating consequences follow.

First, it should discourage people from pursuing leadership for the wrong reasons — with the mistaken belief that a leader is someone who is better than those who are not leaders.

Next, it frees all of us to function as leaders. If leadership is not tied to office, everyone has the freedom and responsibility to exercise leadership as and when the need arises. Everyone has the responsibility to influence others to move toward God-given goals.

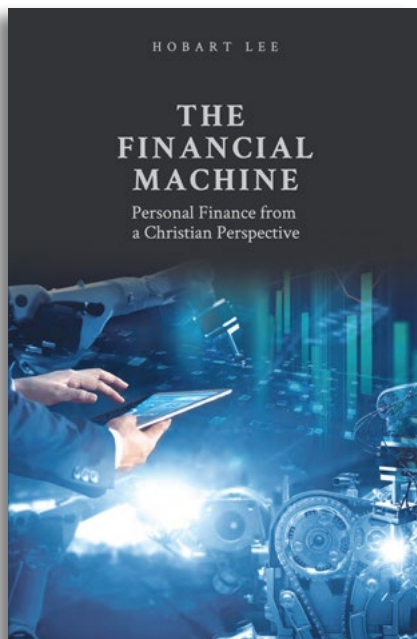

Taking a leaf from Nehemiah, this primer shares the eight key functions that can be seen from Nehemiah's style of exercising leadership.

THE FINANCIAL MACHINE

HOBART LEE

Much of finance is shrouded in a web of complicated theories, mathematics, and jargon. In equal measure, much of Christian financial theology is cloaked in inaccessible abstraction. Yet, the Christian needs both to navigate the financial complexities of life.

The Financial Machine presents one integrated system, built upon the firm foundation of God's Word, that will guide you in stewarding your finances.

THE NARROW ROAD

DAVID W.F. WONG

Why not go with the flow? Why not take the easy road? Why not keep on one side to be safe? In The Narrow Road, the author challenges readers to choose the path he describes as a mountain ridge with ravines on both sides. The way is narrow, difficult and perilous, but it leads to life.

*"In today's confusing world, we find ourselves torn in different directions: hearing different teachings on all sides and uncertain which to follow; aware of the dangers of extremes but unsure what the middle course might look like. In The Narrow Road, David Wong offers sensible and biblically-based guidance, drawing on years of pastoral experience and teaching. There are no quick fixes or 'magic bullets' here, but much truth to reflect on."*

THE PLATE SPINNER

BEST SELLER

DEV MENON

The seemingly benign issue of time, if not handled wisely, can become malignant. We have only so much time in a day, a week, a month—and soon, all too soon, the years will catch up with us. The best part of our lives hurries past us, and we wonder if it has gone the way of waste and regrets. Could we have invested our time better? As in medical conditions, malignancy is best treated when detected in the early stages.

“Readers of all ages will profit from its probing questions, calling for mid-course corrections and setting us on track to a plate-spinning act worthy of the audience of One, the Lord Jesus who has this message for all plate spinners.”

WOMEN WITHOUT WALLS

MARY COTES

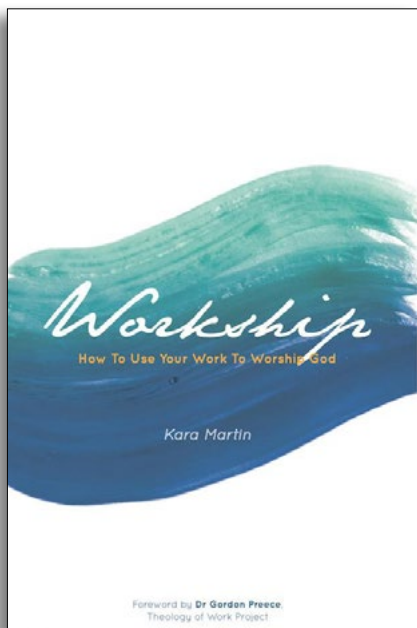

Jesus calls men and women alike to be ambassadors of God's kingdom in society. What kind of spiritual journey can strengthen them to rise to this challenge, engage in the public arena and thrive as the strong, significant players in mission that God calls them to be? This is the question that lies at the heart of this book.

Reflecting on the parable of the yeast and weaving together stories of women from the Bible with those of Christian history, the author offers inspiration and encouragement to all women of today who seek to be faithful to the values of God's kingdom in every aspect of their daily lives.

WORKSHIP

Australian Christian Book of the Year*

KARA MARTIN

In her book, Kara explores the biblical view of work, provides six spiritual disciplines to integrate faith and work, shares practical wisdom on how to make a difference in the workplace, and offers ideas to help churches better equip their congregations to live out their faith at work.

"The first thing that struck me about this excellent book is its name. It declares two fundamental truths. One, that worship is something that involves the whole of life and is not just an activity you do on Sunday. Two, that a large part of our lives is spent in our everyday work and therefore we are to glorify God with our work."

Taken together, these chapters reveal God's heart for victims of sexual violence, demonstrate how to be a supportive church community, explain how to avoid common mistakes when responding to and journeying with victims, and propose how to safeguard our churches responsibly.

Whether you are a pastor managing a sexual assault case, a lay person who wants to equip your church community to be a safe space, or someone journeying with a victim of sexual violence, this book is for you.

"This book seeks to both encourage those who are serious about following Christ but who are struggling with same-sex attraction, and to challenge the church to lend a listening ear and a helping and welcoming hand. The stories in this book are told with pathos, honesty, and courage.

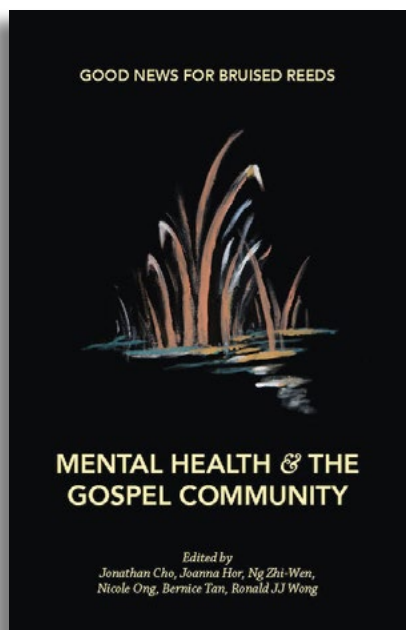

We must all recognise that whatever our story or struggle with sin (and we all have struggles), God has chosen us to be His children so that we can be conformed to the likeness of His Son. The church should understand this and provide a safe redemptive space to all of us sinners, whatever our problem, surrounded by the sheltering canopy of God's unchanging truth and abiding love."

Mental illness is often misunderstood; Christians with mental illness even more so. Various myths and erroneous mindsets often hinder the Gospel Community from being effective in supporting those with mental illness.

This book is an honest look into how the church can journey with Christians with mental illnesses effectively. Its moving testimonies by those who suffer from it, their caregivers, and pastors who minister to these brothers and sisters, challenge the common misconceptions about mental illness.

Men for Christ: Living Out Our Faith Vol. II is a bold response to the crisis of masculinity in the church. In a world that is becoming more chaotic this book is indispensable for the Christian man who is looking to grow into an "oak of righteousness" (Is 61:3), and "hold tightly without wavering" to his hope in God (Heb 10:23).

This volume features 22 more men who address issues pertaining to deep inward restoration to Christlikeness: sexual purity, anger management, the importance of being accountable, and mental health; as well as the outward expressions of faith that emerge from a renewed heart: being an effective marketplace minister and evangelism to the nations. Together, they form a picture of hope of the holistic transformation that God can do both in a man and, through him, in the world today.

"Using money to advance the Kingdom of God—that is precisely what Tiang Siew has done with his money, and a key way he has done this is by investing in the lives of people.

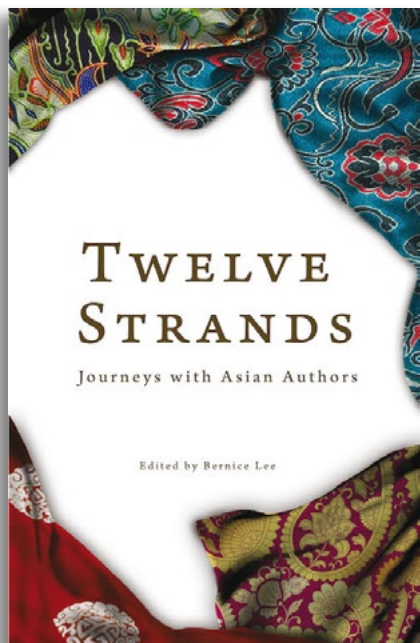

This book is a collection of stories of people who have benefited from Tiang Siew's investment. They illustrate how one person's choices have blessed people who have in turn gone on to bless others. Tiang Siew's investments are like stones thrown into a pond which cause ripples of blessings that go on and on. This is a key element of Tiang Siew's legacy. How do we relate Christianity to political engagement in Malaysia today? This is the question that we, as part of the community of believers, are trying to answer in this book. It is our conviction that "if Jesus Christ is not Lord of all, He is not Lord at all". We proclaim the lordship of Jesus over every aspect of life. Therefore, it is important for us to reflect on the relationship between what we confess on Sunday and what is happening in the country every day.

"This book teaches biblical views and opinions about the Christian and non-partisan politics. Recommended highly for all Christians!"

HWA YUNG

This short book is one attempt to respond to the need to help Christians in Asia find a biblical response to the real pressures they face in the marketplace. It takes seriously both the Scriptures and the context in which Asian Christians function. It begins with a theological framework for grappling with real-time problems, continues with responses from various theologians on the framework presented, and concludes with actual case studies from the marketplace.

"I trust this book will be an inspiration, and a reason for hope, for all of those called by God to work in a setting where the path forward is neither easy nor clear."

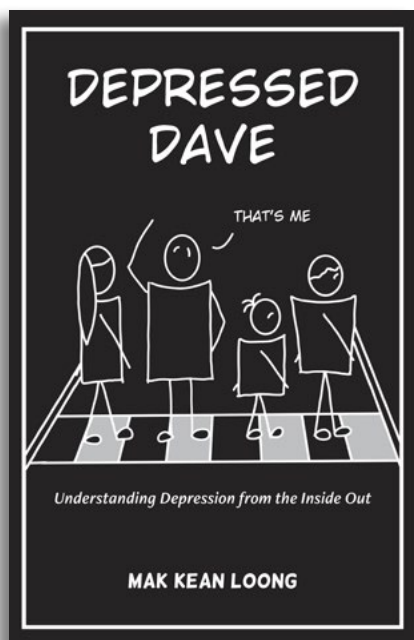

— Albert M. Erisman, Center for Integrity in Business, Seattle Pacific University

DEPRESSED DAVE

MAK KEAN LOONG

Many books teach you how to fight depression, or how to recover from it. But how many actually show you what the journey looks like?

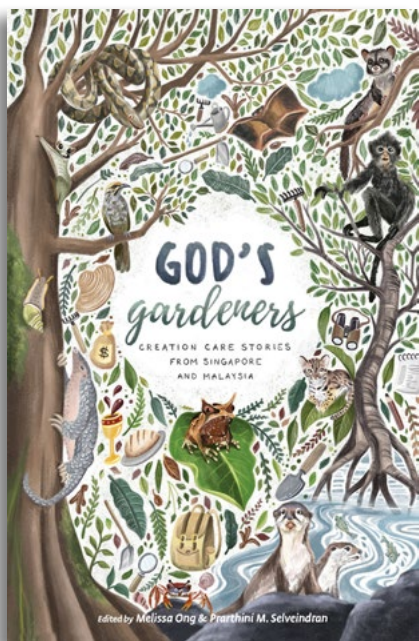

Drawing—literally and figuratively—from his experience with depression, Mak (the author), along with his delightful cast of 'stick' figures, takes readers on a brutally honest, wonderfully insightful and deeply touching exploration of what it's like to live with depression. From causes and symptoms to inner thoughts and emotions, warning signs and treatment methods to insights into caregiving and friendship; this book has got it all.

It is Mak's hope that it will be a safe space for those suffering, those caring for sufferers, and those who are simply curious about depression.

GOD'S GARDENERS

edited by
MELISSA ONG
PRARTHINI M. SELVEINDRAN

This collection of stories marks Singapore's first book on creation care. Each story captures how ordinary Christians from different walks of life have humbly put their faith into radical action, and integrated the biblical ethos of creation care into the everyday.

The writers reflect on creation care as an organic part of the path of discipleship and missional living, rather than an imposed or burdensome duty. Ultimately, it is an invitation to followers of Christ to care for God's marvelous creation as an act of worship and love.

"Inspiring, provocative and practical are the stories, reflections and interludes. I commend this refreshing work to the Singapore Church in hope that she will live out her mandate as God's Gardeners and bear fruit..."

THE DAO OF HEALING

PAK-WAH LAI

In recent years, the popularity of Chinese medicine have been growing across the globe. However, it is still viewed with suspicion and negativity by some Christians. The Dao of Healing provides an in-depth exploration of the histories and philosophies that shape both Chinese and Western medicine, and outlines how we can dialogue and learn from it as Christians who are called to "love our neighbour".

"There has been much misconception and polarising controversy over Chinese Medicine. This well-researched book with its robust theological framework challenges us to reconsider the immense depth, contribution and role of Chinese medicine in our complex world today. A brilliant book with confident clarity!"

WHERE HUMAN RIGHTS & BIBLICAL JUSTICE MEET

STEVE BRADBURY

"These nine essays challenge our understanding of the Bible and compel us to rethink how theology should be applied in the context of the human condition.

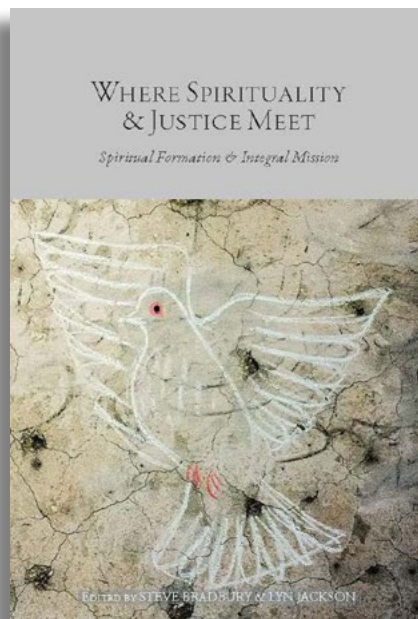

They confront the reality of everyday life, from the status of patriarchy, gender equality and egalitarianism, to mobility and employment, human trafficking and modern day slavery, to social security, land rights and the displacement of the urban poor, to community participation in decision-making and development, and to the appropriate origins, foundations and norms in the advocacy for and promotion of human rights values"

WHERE SPIRITUALITY AND JUSTICE MEET

STEVE BRADBURY
LYN JACKSON

How do those called to serve the economically poor follow after the model of Christ who also experienced times of soul-wrenching distress and grief? How does one cooperate with the ongoing work of spiritual formation?

These are but some of the questions addressed by this compilation of essays, originally written as part of the Master of Transformational Development (MTD) program at Eastern College Australia. The authors share how they wrestled with such questions, and testify that ones capacity to "do justice and love mercy and walk humbly with God" requires a God-nurtured resilience.

"This is the finest fruit of reflective learning form development practitioners who have genuinely grappled with the reality of spiritual formation in real life situations."

THE PATTERN

DEV MENON

There is much joy as two people in love commit themselves to each other, and there is the joyful anticipation of how the marriage can become a blessing to the couple and to others. But there is also a degree of apprehension as even the best of marriages need hard work to succeed and too many marriages don't work out even among followers of Jesus.

"Readers will find Dev's writing conversational and accessible. He combines a strong theological framework with a lot of practical help for couples as they begin their marriage. The Pattern provides this biblical foundation and does it admirably."

A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON CHINESE MEDICINE

PAK-WAH LAI

Can Christians use Chinese Medicine? Some esteem it while others regard it as tainted by non-Christian religious ideas and should be avoided. To answer this question, Dr Lai brings Chinese medicine into dialogue with modern medicine, and evaluates both traditions from biblical, theological and philosophical perspectives.

"...refreshingly simple, helpful and clear on a daunting topic plagued by ignorance, fear and instinctive reactions. The approach outlined is accessible and provides a framework for deeper theological reflection and practice. I highly commend this booklet for your prayerful reading."

Sabbath for Pastors has much to say about our maddening, busy lifestyle—that we may truly understand what life and pastoral ministry is all about. Sabbath is a gift of life given to us, so that we may find our rest and renewal in God.

"Sabbath has important implications for the spiritual life of the church as a whole. A failure to understand how this ancient teaching relates to the modern church will inevitably lead to a great loss of vitality among God's people, and damage to its people and its mission."

WAITING

DAVID W.F. WONG

Waiting is hard. We fidget, we pace up and down, we mutter under our breath. We become restless, impatient. The Bible is full of people who could not wait. Thankfully, there were those who waited. While you wait, may these meditations, or devotions, from the pages of Holy Scriptures keep you company and help you converse with your soul. Perhaps, we have something to learn from each of them—while we are waiting.

压伤芦苇，你不折断： 与同性吸引之友同行

何佩欣
黄志文
李钻音
陈思恩
黄健杰
張傑強

本书希望达致双层效果：一方面鼓励那些认真跟随基督，却又挣扎于同性吸引的人；另一方面挑战教会耐心聆听，伸出援手。书里的故事娓娓道来，让人感受到那迂回澎湃的情感，毫不遮掩的坦诚，与令人钦佩的勇气。

我们一定要意识到无论我们的故事如何迂回崎岖，与罪的挣扎如何刻苦铭心(我们都有挣扎)，神已拣选我们做祂儿女，好叫我们效法祂儿子的模样(罗8:29)。这是神给所有人的计划，而我们都在这道路上变得越来越像基督。教会务必明白这点，并为我们所有罪人提供一个安全，蒙救赎的空间(参考以赛亚4:5-6)，让我们无论什么问题，都能在神永恒不变的真理和长久忍耐的大爱中，享受神的荫蔽，得以躲避生活中的狂风暴雨。
